

VANCOUVER: Bus drivers being assaulted almost every other day- CAW Local predicts more than 200 incidents will be logged by year's end

JULY 28, 2006

CAW Local 111 has released numbers showing violence against its members is escalating at an alarming rate. The union says drivers are being verbally or physically assaulted nearly every second day and that they're on track to see up to 240 incidents this year. Union Spokesperson Terry Fedoruk says drivers are forced to turn the other cheek. "We're the front line staff, we're the ones that are there that they react to, and we have little or no means of defence or an ability to call somebody to have somebody on the spot," Fedoruk said.

For more information on this please click the following link:

Vancouver Sun Article